Dear Sir/Madam,

Regina v JOHN PALMER

The above application for leave to appeal against sentence has been listed for hearing before the Full Court on Monday 15 July 2002 at 10.30 a.m. in Court 8.

It is understood that there will be representation by Counsel only (and Solicitors if privately funded or covered by a legal aid order).

The appellant will be brought to court. He/She is entitled to be present on the hearing of the appeal but may waive their right to attend if they wish.

If you are aware that the appellant has been released on Home Detention Curfew please inform us.

Please note that if you are on record as the solicitor acting for the applicant you are under a duty to inform your client of any changes to the listing of the case.

Counsel, Solicitors and the family of appellants are advised to contact the List Office on the afternoon before the hearing, as time markings may have been allocated, or other changes to the list may have been made.

Please note the date and time this notification was printed. This supersedes all notifications sent previously. If you have received another notification with the same date, please phone to query the position with the List Office on the telephone number at the head of this letter.

Yours faithfully

Miss S Wilson
